“INSIDE ALDI”

The following is what we might expect from you when enrolling on the Business Studies course in September:

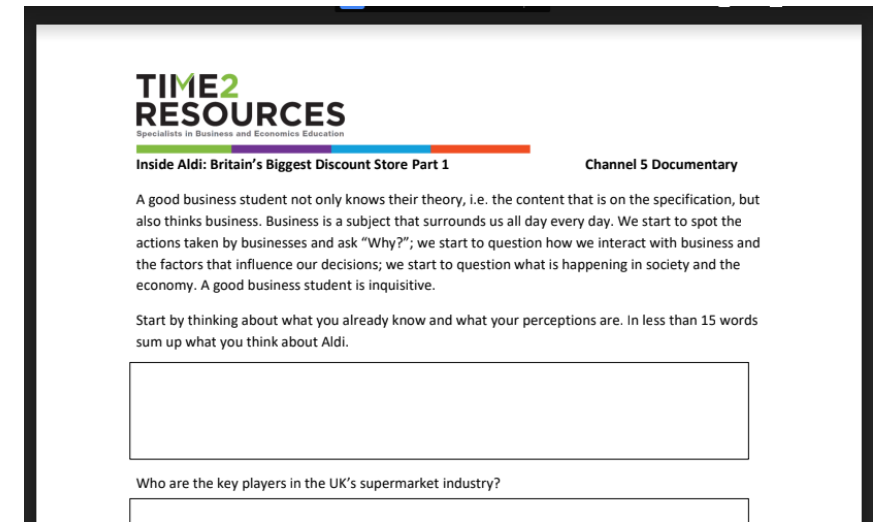

- a realistic expectation of the subject and the range of topics covered
- an appreciation of the fact that there will be lots of new content
- an appreciation of the fact it will include numerical skills
- some understanding of the skills necessary to develop over the 2 years of study
- an ability to contribute in class with real world examples
- an inquisitive mind

Inside Aldi: Britain's Biggest Discount Store Part 1 Channel 5 Documentary

A good business student not only knows their theory, i.e. the content that is on the specification, but also thinks business. Business is a subject that surrounds us all day every day. We start to spot the actions taken by businesses and ask "Why?"; we start to question how we interact with business and the factors that influence our decisions; we start to question what is happening in society and the economy. A good business student is inquisitive.

Start by thinking about what you already know and what your perceptions are. In less than 15 words sum up what you think about Aldi.

Who are the key players in the UK's supermarket industry?

Please look after your completed work and store somewhere safe as you will be expected to hand it in when you come back in September!

See you then!
